The weekly Country Songwriters and Country Producers charts are based on total points accrued by a songwriter and producer, respectively, for each attributed song that appears on the Hot Country Songs chart. As with Billboard's yearly recaps, multiple writers or producers split points for each song equally (and the dividing of points will lead to occasional ties on rankings).

AFM & SAG-AFTRA FUND 25TH ANNIVERSARY

'Do we have royalties for you?' is a question that the AFM & SAG-AFTRA Fund takes great pleasure in asking. Initially formed in 1998 by the American Federation of Musicians and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (now SAG-AFTRA), the Fund is an independent non-profit entity whose purpose is to collect and distribute royalties to Non-Featured Performers. Specifically, the Fund pays ALL session musicians and vocalists for their performance on recorded music played on satellite radio, non-interactive streaming, and other digital formats. In addition, the Fund collects and pays international neighboring rights royalties to union-represented performers.

The contributions of session musicians and vocalists weave together a vast majority of the tapestry of music the world enjoys. They work behind the scenes and rarely achieve individual fame, but their influence is undeniable. Since recorded music began, artists, bands, and orchestras have relied on these performers' expertise to make their sonic dreams come true. Fortunately for these well-deserving musicians and vocalists, the AFM & SAG-AFTRA Fund has their back. As digital platforms continue to grow, the AFM & SAG-AFTRA Fund will undoubtedly play an increasingly important role in collecting and distributing royalties to these deserving performers. The fact that the Fund has distributed over $650 million in royalties to thousands of non-featured performers and their beneficiaries is a testament to their commitment to support musicians and vocalists across virtually every genre of music.

On their 25th Anniversary, please join in congratulating the AFM & SAG-AFTRA Fund on their remarkable achievements and their continued dedication to advocating on behalf of the many talented musicians and vocalists who make the music we love.
